AMERICA'S PUMPED-UP ECONOMY

NEG-4

On the cover

America's growth keeps defying the pessimists. Can that last? Leader, page 9. Against the odds, the country has escaped a hard landing, but there are still pitfalls ahead: briefing, page 16. Share prices are surging. Investors are delighted—but also nervous, page 61

Time's up for TikTok To stay on Western screens, the video app must cut its ties to China: leader, page 11, and analysis, page 53

Inside Putin's Russia The West doesn't have a strategy for dealing with a resilient rogue state. It needs one, fast: leader, page 10. Russians go to the polls in a sham election, page 41. A window into wartime Russia. How the invasion of Ukraine is transforming Vladivostok, page 42

Crazy rich Indians The country's new wealthy elites are younger and more adventurous, page 29

A special report on the oil industry For the past 50 years the business and politics of oil have been dominated by matching supply to ever-increasing demand. The next 50 years will look different, argues Vijay Vaitheeswaran, after page 40
